

Reliable Law Services Legal Notice

1. Reliable Law Services is a legal practice authorized and regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (the “SRA”) (SRA Number: 829245). The SRA is the independent regulatory body of the Law Society of England and Wales, and its purpose is to protect the public by ensuring that solicitors meet high standards. The SRA rules can be accessed via www.sra.org.uk. All references to “Reliable Law Services”, “the firm” and the like should be read as referring to Reliable Law Services.
2. We use the word “partner” and/or “principal” to refer to a senior solicitor who has a share of the management control of Reliable Law Services.
3. Reliable Law Services is registered at Companies House (company no. 08298318) and their registered offices are situated at 76A Katherine Drive, Dunstable LU5 4NU.
4. Reliable Law Services is registered for Value Added Tax in the United Kingdom (registration number 448590753).
5. Reliable Law Services is not authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and all amending legislation but we are able in certain circumstances to offer a limited range of investment services to clients because we are authorised and regulated by the SRA. We can only provide investment services if they are an incidental part of the professional services we have been engaged to provide.
6. The firm acts as a legal adviser; it is not part of our role to give advice on the merits of investment transactions. Any investment decision is for our clients to make and no communication by the firm should be treated as an invitation or inducement to our clients to engage in investment activity.
